SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 9 For August 1971.
Subject: Missions Misunderstood
Scripture Key Text - "In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.' John 16:33.

As we trace the struggle between the forces of good and evil, from the inception of evil in heaven until its final eradication, we are aware of certain outstanding facts:

1. Satan is doing all in his power to win support. 2. Satan can and does employ methods that God will not use. 3. As we near the end of time, Satan works harder. 4. Satan will do and is doing all in his power to make men misunderstand God, His purposes, His kingdom, and His people. 5. If other methods fail, Satan will use fanaticism. He will tempt men to go to extremes. One extreme can be as bad as another. The Jews in Christ's day had gone to extremes in their religion. 6.God depends upon His church to represent Him.

In the lesson we shall study about how the mission God committed to man has been misunderstood through the ages. The question of loyalty to God and His law has caused trouble from the Fall until our own time. The three angels messages focus on this loyalty; therefore they are the greatest opposition of the ages. Rev. 12;17; 14:6-12

Lesson Outline - 1. First Human Family. Heb. 11:14. 2 Noah and the Old Testament Prophets, Heb. 11, 7. 3. Christ's Mission Misunderstood. Isa. 53; 3, 4. The Apostles Martyred Mati. 24:9. 5. Remnant Church Persecuted Rev. 12:12. 6. Individual Persecution John 15;18; 17:14. We have introduced this lesson with Abel (Read Heb. 11:4) because in a sense he and his brother Cain represent the human race a s a whole. Sin had entered Eden. Our first parents had been excluded. The controversy between Christ and Satan had begun in the hearts of men. The worlds first two boys are prototypes of all who have followed . . "The murder of Abel was the first example of the enemity that God had declared would exist between the serpant and the seed of the woman – Between Satan and his subjects and Christ and His followers".Patriarchs and Prophets p. 77. "Amid the prevailing corruption, Methuselah, Noah, and many others labored to keep alive the knowledge of the true God and to stay the tide of moral evil" . . . Enoch had repeated to his children what God had shown him in regard to the Flood, and Mathuselah and his sons, who lived to hear the preaching of Noah, assisted in building the ark." -Patriarchs and Prophets p. 92.

Not only did the leaders of the Jewish nation misunderstand Jesus and the purpose of His mission but also His mother had some mistaken ideas. (The Desire of Ages p. 147) Read Isa. 53;3, also His brothers and disciples misunderstood much of the purpose of His mission. Please read (Matt. 24:9)These words of Jesus to His disciples warned them what they might expect to experience as His representatives: Read carefully Rev, 12:12 and John 15;18; 17;-14.
